MESSAGE OVERVIEW

Paul finally makes it to Rome. Luke details Paul's travels for several chapters, in great detail, but doesn't tell us much once he arrives in Rome. Acts doesn't really end because God can't be stopped and the story isn't over.

ICE BREAKER

What's the biggest missed opportunity you've ever heard of?

READ ACTS 28:16-31

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Once Paul arrives in Rome, there are some Jews who reject the good news. This happened over and over in Acts. What does that tell you about many Jews in the first century?

Nothing could stop God from spreading the good news in Acts. How does that affect your faith in God?

The story of what God is doing through the church is still being written. How does this affect your faith about what God can do through our church?

Not only does God save us but he allows us to be a part of what he's doing in the world. What does that tell you about God?

APPLICATION

What is God saying to you through this passage?

In light of what you've heard, how are you going to be different in the future?
