MESSAGE OVERVIEW

The gospel of John was written to help people believe (Jn. 20:30-31). So, it's interesting that one of the first people Jesus calls is skeptical. Nathanel wonders if anything good can come from Nazareth. He receives a simple invitation from Philip, "Come and see." The invitation is the same for anyone who struggles to believe.

ICE BREAKER

What's something you've been skeptical about?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

How would you describe the Christian faith to someone who hasn't had much exposure to it?

What do you think keeps most people from having faith in God?

What has caused you to doubt?

What makes "come and see" a good response to someone who is skeptical?

How can we encourage people to "come and see," even when they have doubts like Nathanael?

APPLICATION

What is God saying to you through this passage?

In light of what you've heard, how are you going to be different in the future?
