

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are designed to extend the impact of the Sunday message. Feel free to use them for your personal study time, your family, or your Family Group.

MESSAGE OVERVIEW

It's not hard to settle for too little in life, even in your relationship with God. One of the benefits of a new year is the opportunity to establish a new normal. When it comes to our walk with God, there is more than our present experience. In fact, God is "able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine." Don't settle for too little in 2019. There is more...

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

As followers of Jesus, there is more power available to us than we often recognize.

What is one area of your life that you know would be different if you became more empowered by Christ?

What do you think Paul means by "filled with all the fullness of God?"

Neil mentioned a struggle of churches/Christians to become content with mediocrity and use the excuse "we've already tried everything." What is wrong with this statement?

Do you have a hunger for more of God, or are you content with what you've already seen? If you never witnessed another work of God before you die, would you feel dissatisfied? Would it make a difference?

APPLICATION

What is God saying to you through this passage of Scripture?

In light of what you've experienced, how are you going to be different in the future?

God is able to do "more than all we ask or imagine." Take a minute to imagine what God could accomplish in the world through the church. Write down a few imaginative questions in this way: "What if the church _____?"
