MESSAGE OVERVIEW

Paul wrote a letter to the church in Philippi from jail. When it came to relating to one another, he gave them one standard: Jesus Christ. Each individual was called to view others as better than themselves. Jesus modeled this standard by leaving heaven, becoming a servant, and serving others all the way to the cross.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

How challenging is it to put others interests above your own?

How do you see the cultural value of looking out for our own interests playing out in people's lives around you?

How do vs. 6-8 speak to you about the kind of savior we have in Jesus?

Do you see a difference between serving and living the lifestyle of a servant? If so, how would you describe the difference?

What can you do as a group to serve others or put their interests above your own?

APPLICATION

What is God saying to you through this passage of scripture?

In light of what you've heard, how are you going to be different in the future?
