MESSAGE OVERVIEW

After the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15) the good news continues to spread to new places. In Acts 16:6-10 Paul and his traveling companions encounter several closed doors. Their insistence to keep knocking tells us something about their spirit, a spirit we would do well to restore today.

ICE BREAKER

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Paul and the others keep looking for a place to go until God makes it clear that he's opened a door. What does that tell you about them?

How can you live, as an individual, with the same kind of spirit as Paul and those he was traveling with?

How can we, as a church, embody the same spirit as Paul and his traveling companions?

What kinds of things do you think we would regularly see and experience if we had the same passion for sharing our faith?

APPLICATION

What is God saying to you through this passage?

In light of what you've heard, how are you going to be different in the future?
