MESSAGE OVERVIEW

For the month of November we're covering our Core Values. These provide clarity about what matters so we can do more of what matters. Without Core Values there aren't clear motives for why we do what we do. The Core Value we covered this week is: Life Change.

DISCUSSION

At UCC, we value Life Change in three specific ways.

- Worshiping in the presence of God
- Expecting every disciple of Jesus to grow
- Loving people no matter where they are on their journey

This week, take some time to check in with your group. Is your group experiencing life change? How? If not, what are some of the burdens and barriers keeping your group from experiencing life change?

Consider the commitments we all made at the end of Preston's message to live out the different ways we experience life change. What steps is your group going to take in order to keep those commitments? How can your group keep each other accountable?

APPLICATION

In light of this biblical truth, how are you going to be different in the future?
