MESSAGE OVERVIEW

We have all experienced confusion as a result of poor communication or vague expectations. But Jesus was clear about how his people ought to put first things first.

After his resurrection, with all authority on earth having been given to him, his first command to his followers is this: Make Disciples.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What does success look like for a church? How can the church know if it is doing what God designed it to do?

The word “Christian” appears 3 times in the New Testament. The word “disciple” appears over 300 times. Why do you think that’s significant?

We all want to follow Jesus, but we’ve all learned and lived in ways that don’t line up with Jesus’ teaching. Who might you be a disciple of?

What lifestyle changes might you need to make to either become a disciple-maker or become a more effective disciple-maker?

APPLICATION

What is God saying to you through this passage of Scripture?
In light of this, how are you going to be different in the future?
