MESSAGE OVERVIEW

For the month of October, we'll be breaking down our church's Basic Biblical Beliefs.

These are extremely important because they provide a foundation for what we believe about Scripture and its central focus, which gives us purpose for how to live in response to what it says. We believe that, at the center of all Scripture, is Jesus. The whole narrative of the Bible points to him.

DISCUSSION ACTIVITY

Consider the self-assessment that Neil presented this morning. Talk with your group about where you are right now, where you would like to be, and what steps you could take to get there.

Where were you on the continuum at your lowest points in your life? What were some of the orienting/driving forces in your life when you weren't doing well?

Where were you on the continuum at your highest points? What were some of the orienting/driving forces in your life when things were good?

APPLICATION

In light of this biblical truth, how are you going to be different in the future?
