

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are designed to extend the impact of the Sunday message. Feel free to use them for your personal study time, your family, or your Family Group.

MESSAGE OVERVIEW

Ever since the creation of the world, God designed humanity to thrive in community. In fact, the first thing that God did not say was "good" was that Adam was alone. In order to flourish, we must live into the way God has designed us. By connecting with family, we connect with God.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What can family groups accomplish that a Sunday morning worship assembly can't? What are some things about God that let us know the necessity for us to live in community?

Go around the room and say who it was that first taught you about Jesus. With these answers in mind, is it possible to be introduced to Jesus without community? Is it possible to know Jesus more deeply without community?

What does can an "us and God" mentality accomplish that a "me and God" mentality can't? What about "us and the Bible" vs. "me and the Bible?"

APPLICATION

In light of what you've heard, how are you going to be different in the future?
